tion Former Sale

We have in this sale many duplicates of sets that made up our sensational set sales of last year. Prices resulting from this great auction purchase are 25 to 50% under prices at which we sold them, br inging the sale prices down to actually less than the cost of binding alone in many instances. The picture above shows a part of the great shipment of sets. As for the books from Legatt Bros., the titles are so numerous, so varied and quantities so variable that we can do no more than present a schedule of the prices according to tables. Some are new, some are shopworn, some are very much handled, but the books are worth three to ten times the prices asked. Legatt Bros. conducted one of the most noted book shops in America, and the store's closing was looked upon by New York book lovers as a real calamity. It is one of the rarest treats for book lovers ever presented in the south. Thousands of volumes, embracing

Popular and Standard Fiction, Medicine, Science, Biography, Poetry, Religion, Art, History, Americana, Music, School Books, Travel, Law Reports, Government Reports, Foreign Books and Old Magazines

Some published as recently as last year, others published 100 to 200 years ago. Remember, these books made up the stock of a book shop with a world-wide reputation. We present below a list of the sets from our great auction purchase. The news is nothing more than a bulletin. We urge early selection, because the quantities of each are very limited. All we ask is: READ THE LIST, NOTE THE PRICES. COME AND SEE THE BOOKS. YOU CANNOT HELP BUYING THEN.
